

UMMRA FALL QUARTERLY MEETING
University of Minnesota, Morris
October 3, 2013

There were 20 members attending the Fall Quarterly Meeting held in the lower-level room of the Old No. 1 Bar and Grill. Everyone ordered from the menu.

Andy Lopez, President, introduced the speakers for the afternoon who were Sandy Olson-Loy, Vice-Chancellor of Student Affairs, and T. J. Ross, Associate Director of Residential Life. The topic was on the new Green Prairie Community dorm which opened this fall for occupancy. Sandy stressed the “green” prairie ecosystems that were used in the design of the building and Mr. Ross talked about the construction and layout of the dorm. Students, who are housed in this dorm, were selected based on their interest in the environment. After the meeting, the group was invited to take a tour through this new facility.

Andy Lopez opened the quarterly meeting. Minutes of the annual meeting were distributed. Bernice Erdahl moved that the minutes be accepted as written, Kathy Benson seconded. Motion approved.

There was no treasurer’s/membership report.

There was no business to bring before the general membership.
